SAINTS FOR THE DAY: Monday, 30 July, we recognize St. Peter Chrysologues, Bishop and Doctor of the Church. Not much is known about St. Peter, who lived from approximately 380 to 450. He was bishop of Ravenna from about the year 433. One hundred seventy-six of his homilies survive, brief and to the point, in which he explains the Incarnation, the Creed, and the major heresies of his day. He was given the name Chrysologus, or "golden-worded", for his eloquent preaching. Thursday, 2 August is the memorial of St. Eusebius of Vercelli, Bishop. St. Eusebius was born in Sardinia. He was made the first bishop of Vercelli, probably in the 340s, and formed his clergy into a monastic community. At the 355 Synod of Milan, he refused to condemn Athanasius for opposing the Arian heresy, which undermined belief in the full divinity of Christ. As a result, he was exiled to Syria, to Cappadocia, and later to Egypt. When he was finally allowed to return from exile, he joined Athanasius at a synod that affirmed the divinity of the Holy Spirit and urged merciful treatment of repentant bishops who had signed Arian creeds. Once he returned to Vercelli, he joined Hilary of Poitiers to defeat the Arian heresy in the West. He died in 371 but was probably not martyred.

A Family Perspective, by Bud Ozar:

In today's gospel Phillip worried about "enough food" for the crowd. What is ENOUGH? When does our ENOUGH deprive another family of their fair share? Jesus performed today's miracle because one child was willing to share and risk living with less. Can your family live more simply so that other families can simply live?
