-- For 50 years the Chapel + Cultural Center has served Rensselaer and the surrounding community as a place for religious and cultural expression; a venue for dance, drama, and music; a meeting place for campus and community organizations; common ground for airing differences and seeking compromise; a site for exhibiting art; a quiet place open 365 days a year for solitude, contemplation, prayer. Designed to serve changing needs in an evolving world, it has hosted an impressive variety of activities and events. To celebrate our 50th year, we will be hosting a special exhibition of the history of the C+CC at the RPI Folsom Library. The exhibit will be on display between the months of October and November. Many thanks to Jim Hyde for all of his tireless efforts in helping us sort and organize our files for this project!

A Family Perspective, by Bud Ozar:

Having possessions is an illusion. In today's gospel Jesus told the young man to give up his need to control and put his trust in God. He couldn't let go! In families, our need to control destroys relationships. We can lead, teach and encourage, but we can't control anyone but ourselves.
